Declaration of consent regarding the provision and use of the examination work in electronic form to enable the verification by means of plagiarism software

With this declaration of consent, I make an electronic version of my above-mentioned examination work available to the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences of the University of Cologne. The file is available in an electronic copyable and readable format and is free of all personal data (without cover sheet, personal explanations, dedications, signature etc). For the purpose of facilitating a review of my work by means of a plagiarism software by the faculty, I hereby declare my agreement with the use of the submitted electronic version of my work. To this end, I grant the Faculty and, in particular, third parties commissioned by it the right to store and reproduce the work electronically for the period of the review. After the check is completed, the work will be deleted.

Paper 5*

The publication of a cumulative dissertation by submitting 30 copies is sufficient for publication guidelines only if they are papers that have been published or have been accepted for publication.

Affidavit
in line with § 8 paragraph 3 of the doctoral regulation from 17.02.2015

“I hereby affirm in lieu of oath that I have produced the submitted work independently and without the use of any other means than the specified tools. The statements, data and concepts directly or indirectly taken from other sources are indicated with the source. When selecting and evaluating the following material, the persons who are listed below helped me in the manner described in return for payment/free of charge (underline if it applies):

Further persons, in addition to the co-authors listed in the introduction of the work, were not involved in the material content preparation of this work. In particular, I did not avail myself of the provision of intermediary or advisory services in return for payment for this purpose. No one has directly or indirectly received money from me for work that is related to the content of the submitted dissertation. The work has so far not been submitted in the same or similar form to another examination body either in Germany or abroad. I assure that, to the best of my knowledge, I have said nothing but the truth and have not concealed anything.”
