

Declaration on the monographic or cumulative dissertation

I hereby declare that the dissertation I submitted to the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences

- is a monographic dissertation.
- is a cumulative dissertation.

For a cumulative dissertation:

- The approval to write a cumulative dissertation is available or has been specified in the supervision agreement.
- The scientific work is related in terms of content.
- The introduction describes the main results of the publication and clarifies the context in terms of content
- In the case of co-authorship, I have described my own contribution in the introduction to the dissertation.
- The use as a dissertation does not conflict with the rights of third parties.
- At least one work was written as the sole author.
(If this is not the case, the reviewers are asked to take this into account)

Place, Date

Signature

This dissertation is based on the following papers:

Author / possibly Co-authors / title / subtitle / magazine / publication status